the project is scheduled to be awarded in mid-1982. By that time, 23 families and five businesses will have to be relocated to make way for the bypass, according to the Virginia Department of Highways and Transportation.

Dr. W. P. Geisler of Concord, well known optometrist, died Sept. 14. He had practiced in Appomattox and Brookneal for 25 years. "Bill's goal in life was to be a friend to man and if you knew him, you were his friend.

In late September, Dr. Larry F. Smith, a native of Appomattox, announced the establishment of his office for full time practice of medicine in Appomattox in the office with Dr. Clyde G. O'Brien.

James A. Smith, Appomattox County Agricultural Agent, was installed as president of the National Association of County Agricultural Agents Oct. 4, at its 64th Annual Meeting in Rapid City, South Dakota.

The 7th Annual Historic Railroad Festival, cosponsored by the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club and the Town of Appomattox, was held October 13 and 14. Governor John Dalton served as Grand Marshall and Miss Virginia participated in the festivities.

Armstrong Furniture Company, Appomattox plant, marked its fifth year of operation in Appomattox in October. Armstrong currently employs approximately 900 persons, and company officials are pleased with the progress shown during the five years, according to William L. Lowe, Armstrong vice-president and plant manager.

Miss Nadine Faye Bugg, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bugg of Appomattox, was crowned "Miss Appomattox - 1980" Oct. 13 when the Appomattox Woman's Club sponsored the annual Miss Appomatox pageant held at Appomattox County High School.

Christmas, a time of peace and love toward our fellow man, was celebrated for the sixth consecutive year, on December 20 at Appomattox Court House National Historical Park.

And ending the year came the announcement by W. Lloyd Vaughan, editor and publisher of the Times-Virginian for more than 17 years, of the sale of the newspaper to Atlantic Publications, Inc., a weekly newspaper firm based in Accomac, Va.

George N. McMath, president of Atlantic Publications, said, "We are extremely pleased to have the opportunity of being a part of the Appomatox community. For many years, the Times-Virginian has upheld the finest traditions of weekly journalism, with the editor and staff devoted to serving the area.

"I am most grateful for the courtesies which have been extended by Lloyd Vaughan and the warm welcome which has been given by residents of the area. We now look forward to the continuation of ideals which have been synonomous with the Times-Virginian, and pledge our ongoing efforts to cooperate with local citizens and the religious, charitable and civic organizations."

Atlantic Publications officially became the owner of the Times-Virginian Dec. 27.
